

BIO:

Karen Slaton-Dixon started with the City of Norcross 2007. She was originally with the City of Albany, in Albany, GA and has over 23 years of experience in City Government. She has worked in the banking and non-profit fields as well.

Karen was hired as the Financial Analyst for the City of Norcross, and was promoted to General Government Director January 15, 2009. Under her leadership are the Accounts Payable, Accounts Receivable, Payroll, Property Tax, Business License, Cash Collections, Utility Billing, Centralized Purchasing and Accounting/Budgeting.

She has her Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Albany State University in Albany, GA and her MBA with an Accounting Specialization from Georgia Southwestern University in Americus, GA. During her free time she enjoys reading, sports, and spending time with family.

Karen is a member of GFOA (Government Finance Officer Association) and GGFOA (Georgia Government Finance Officer Association).