

Rusty Warner heads our Economic Development Department, and acts as the city's liaison to citizens and businesses, promoting the city and planning for future development.

In 2007, Rusty joined the City of Norcross's Department of Community Development offering an extensive knowledge of Real Estate and development. He accepted a position as a Code Enforcement Officer in 2007 where he was able to build relationships within our business and residential community by working with individuals, offering solutions and education of City Zoning Codes.

Taking initiative during early 2010, at his own expense, Rusty obtained several Building Code Certifications, passing all qualification tests and ensuring him a role as the city's Building Official. Rusty was relied on to provide top-tier customer service, handling all processes, through final building approval/ Certificate of Occupancy.

Through his entrepreneurial approach to business, Rusty brings over 25 years of experience in the Real Estate and Development field, including starting a Real Estate brokering and marketing business, responsible for sales, new planning approaches and marketing strategies for this business. Rusty still holds a real estate Broker's license.

Additionally, Rusty is a member of, or holds the certification of several professional organizations including: Georgia Real Estate Commission-license, North Atlanta Metro and National Association of Realtors-member, Gwinnett Chamber of Congress-LLC member. Atlanta Regional Commission and Council for Quality Growth- event member.

